

Heather Cane

Heather is a member of the firm's legal research team. In her legal research practice, Heather researches and analyses the law and works with other members of the firm preparing opinions, pleadings and briefs on a broad range of subject areas including bankruptcy and insolvency law, corporate and commercial law, freedom of information and privacy law and public utilities law.

Prior to becoming a full time research lawyer, Heather practiced as a litigator focusing mainly on issues involving energy and regulated utilities and power marketers.

Before becoming a lawyer, Heather worked in various management, supervisory, and human resource positions in British Columbia's healthcare industry.

Professional Activities

- UBC, Faculty of Law (Legal Research and Writing), Adjunct Professor (2004 - present)
- Canadian Bar Association (B.C. Branch), Member of the Civil Litigation, Legal Research, Administrative, Aboriginal and Women Lawyers Forum sections

Bar Admissions

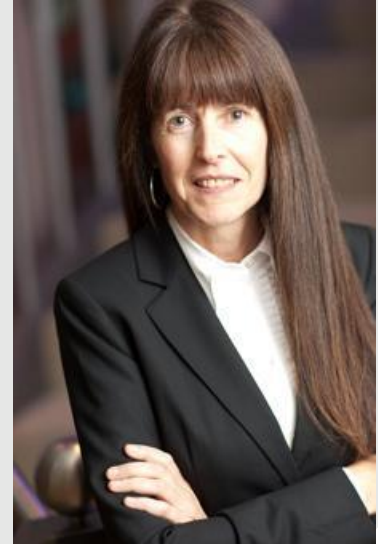

- British Columbia (2002)
- Northwest Territories (2009)
- Nunavut (2010)

Education

- University of British Columbia (LL.B., 2001)

Experience

- Represented a non-profit club in an arbitration regarding the determination of rent pursuant to a lease
- Represented a large electric utility in the review of a long term energy supply contract and call for tenders report before the British Columbia Utilities Commission
- Negotiated various third party vendor agreements
- Assisted a British Columbia power marketer regarding Canada/U.S. electricity trade matters
- Assisted a large electric utility in developing and obtaining regulatory approval for Standards of Conduct governing communications with its transmission provider
- Part of the Lawson Lundell team who represented Teck Cominco at the Supreme Court of Canada

Heather Cane

Partner

Vancouver

P: 604.631.6794

F: 604.669.1620

E: hcane@lawsonlundell.com

Parveen Bunwait

Legal Assistant

604.408.5321

Practices

- Administrative, Constitutional and Public Law
- Commercial Litigation
- Litigation & Dispute Resolution
- Public Utility and Regulatory
- Research and Opinions

Heather Cane (Cont.)

News / Publications

- Team of Lawson Lundell lawyers recognized in Lexpert Magazine's Big Deals for their role in the US Gold Corporation acquisition of Minera Andes Inc., (April 12, 2012)
- Lawson Lundell represents BC Hydro in the $825 million purchase of a 1/3 interest in the 493 megawatt Waneta Dam from Teck Metals Ltd., (March 22, 2010)
- Brad Armstrong, Q.C. and Heather Cane successful in Supreme Court of Canada Decision, (March 12, 2010)
- Researching Foreign Law, Continuing Legal Education Society of B.C. course "Legal Research 2008", (December 12, 2008), co-authored with Lisa Peters
- Supreme Court of Canada Appeal, (November 17, 2008)
- "Princeton Light & Power Co. Ltd. v. MacDonald - Back-billing With a Twist of Bad Faith", 8 Regulatory Boards and Administrative Law Litigation 470, (2006)

© 2012 Lawson Lundell LLP. All rights reserved. Lawson Lundell LLP is a British Columbia Limited Liability Partnership.

