"We are pleased to welcome Angela to the firm," said Valerie Mann, Managing Partner at Lawson Lundell. "Angela is a great addition to our growing corporate finance and securities group, strengthening our mining issuer practice as well as securities registrant regulation and compliance."

Angela works with domestic and international mining companies of all sizes, specialties and stages of development in connection with strategic M&A, stock exchange listings, joint ventures, financings, resource disclosure, corporate governance and corporate social responsibility.

"Lawson Lundell's position in the market as a regional law firm with a strong reputation is what drew me to the firm," said Angela. "The clients I work with will benefit from the full range of services that the firm is able to provide, and I am excited to be a part of it."

Prior to joining Lawson Lundell, Angela was a partner at a firm focused exclusively on corporate and securities law matters where she was the Chair of its Funds and Registration practice groups.
